West Valley City Police, West Valley City Fire, West Valley City Neighborhood Watch and many more will celebrate the everyday heroes in our community tonight with a superhero themed National Night Out party.

What: Community Heroes Celebration

Where: Fairbourne Station Promenade, 2810 West 3590 South

When: Thursday, August 17, 2017 from 5:00-8:00pm.

The National Night Out celebration is a free, family-friendly night of entertainment and helpful information. It includes:

- West Valley City Police Department K-9 Demonstration at 5:30pm
- Balloons, face painting, obstacle course, lawn games, rubber duck races and crafts
- McGruff the Crime Dog, Grizzbee and Nat, the National Night Out Knight
- Food trucks
- Emergency Vehicles on display
- Dozens of booths providing information on emergency preparedness, safety and more.
- Child ID Kits to help police if a child goes missing
- Round out your family night of fun with The Otter Creek Duo on stage.
- Stay after the event for a Movie in the Park, featuring "Fantastic 4"

We will also be able to provide interviews on the importance of National Night Out on the local level and how we envision neighborhoods organizing and working together as a powerful tool to stop crime.

The introduction of National Night Out, "America's Night Out Against Crime", in 1984 began an effort to promote involvement in crime prevention activities, police-community partnerships, neighborhood camaraderie and send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.
